Wright, who died on the 16th of August, he made one of the most eloquent and impressive addresses of his whole life. With Beethoven - and the Romantics who followed in his footsteps - what is important is not the forms in themselves, the formal symmetry and inner equilibrium, but the content. If you have a wall-mounted TV, add a table below it to hold remotes and other accessories, and provide a place near the entry where keys, change, and other bits and pieces can be placed and easily located when needed.
