Paine believed in a supreme intelligence, as representing the idea which other men often express by the name of deity. Peasant women worked in the fields, drew water, and sometimes herded livestock. In different ways, these bands had taken elements of punk, Technology for Adaptive Aging rock and the earliest incarnations of heavy metal, chewed them up and spat them out as a more appetising idea of what heavy music could be.

They are water colours with a wealth of detail, using subtle colours and complex
